

Request for Instructions for Authors

Always request the Instructions for Authors from the journal to which you are submitting an article. This information may be found in the first few pages of the professional journal. Prepare the title page, abstract, text, tables, figures, key words, and references in accordance with the journal's instructions.

Note: This information may also frequently be found on the journal's website.