

Facility Guide

Hammond Oliver High School Academy

An unused hospital was converted into classrooms and administrative offices to house the Academy.

Patient rooms and treatment areas are used as teaching laboratories

Computers with internet access are available for student use

